

Maven Communications is currently seeking an account executive to join our growing team. Maven provides high impact public relations and integrated communications services to our client roster of B-to-B and B-to-C companies across a variety of industries including real estate, healthcare, nonprofit, and professional services. The ideal candidate for this position is a self-starter, team player, and a strategic thinker. Maven is currently operating remotely due to the COVID-19 pandemic. However, when it is safe for the Philadelphia business community to return to in-person work, Maven will reopen our office at 123 South Broad Street in Center City Philadelphia.

Job Title: Account Executive

Reports To: Account Supervisor / Practice Area Leader

Summary: The account executive (AE) supports the day-to-day account contact for the client and the team, and in some instances will act as the day-to-day for the client contact. His/her primary responsibilities are to understand the scope and context of the integrated marketing and PR program; to implement the program; drive monthly reporting for all campaigns; and drive activities to successful completion. The AE also holds strong media relationships and has a proven track record of successful media campaigns. In addition, the AE has a strong understanding of how successful social media campaigns support PR efforts and has proven experience in executing business to business social media programs. The AE clearly understands and articulates what opportunities each channel brings to the client and works with his/her team to execute against the program's deliverables. A successful AE will be comfortable working independently and in collaboration with a team.
